Entertain your team and reinforce the benefits of teamwork, with a box full of rubber gloves and a highly-talented facilitator. Clap Happy is the perfect icebreaker or energiser, providing massive colour, fun and energy – guaranteed!

We start by issuing everyone in the room with coloured rubber gloves! Every colour follows a different clapping rhythm to create a colourful clapping orchestra.

Our expert facilitator will lead your guest's on a rhythm adventure that becomes a hilarious challenge, relying on coordination, focus, communication and team work.

We have three separate 'clapping departments' to create one percussive performance. We add lots of audience participation and unique facilitation to create a clapping crescendo. One final surprise is all participants get to keep their prized rubber gloves.

Silly? Yes! Stupid? No! Every time people see those gloves at home, they will remember the activity, your event, and also the business messages learnt there.
