We have designed a virtual Bake A Long where you can invite your clients or team to join you, stay connected, engaged and entertained with a Michelin Star Chef. We will bring you together as you Bake A Long, build relationships and network.

A corporate, socially responsible activity using fresh local sustainable ingredients, baking from scratch and seeing amazing results. A unique platform to keep business moving in a fun and innovative way.

We will dispatch virtual Baking making event parcels to your guests with the ingredients, (shipped out in food temperature-controlled parcels in line with the Food Standards Agency policies). The event packs also contain gift bags, bows, chef hats, aprons and food charts.

We will include a booklet outlining the event overview. Please note that the guests will need to provide basic kitchen equipment.
